ST JOSEPH'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS) VISAKHAPATNAM DEPARTMENT OF M.A. ENGLISH

Programme Specific Outcomes of M.A Programme of English Language & Literature

Students after Post graduating with the M.A English Language & Literature Programme Will:

PSO 1: Be able to identify, analyse and interpret the critical ideas, values, and themes that appear in literary and cultural texts. They will also be able to identify and understand how values have been conveyed through the interplay of themes in the texts and their impact on culture and society. Be familiar with literary movements and traditions through texts written during those movements in British, American, Indian, European, Australian, Canadian, and Caribbean and Afro-American literatures. Thus the PSO enables them to appreciate texts written in different spaces.

Level of attainment: 77.49%

PSO 2: Be able to identify and understand various literary genres through a study of different forms of prose, poetry, drama and fiction with essential reading material in each of these genres. Be able to develop effective reading strategies in multiple contexts, drawing on skills such as close reading, scanning, summarizing and inter-textual analysis Level of attainment: 69.79%

PSO 3: Be able to write in a variety of genres (academic/ non-academic) and develop skills in multiple writing genres. Be able grasp an outline and an introduction to the History of English Language, its descent, and the changes that it has gone through since 600 A.D to the present century. Communicative Language teaching practices in the classroom. Be able to develop proficiency in inter-personal, interpretive and presentation skills.

Level of attainment: 67.29%

Semester I (2018-2019)

Code no	Title of the Paper	Course outcomes
101	Core-1	Will enable them to:

PerformancesCO2: To predict the trends & thematic concerns of the dramatists belonging to different ages in the History of English Drama from their past knowledge of a study of the History of English Literature CO3:To infer the socio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British Drama CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)102Core-2British Poetry -1Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)		British Drama -1	CO1: To trace the beginnings of Drama and theatrical dramatists belonging to different ages in the History of English Drama from their past knowledge of a study of the History of English Literature CO3:To infer the socio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British Drama CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry102Core-2Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Vill enable them to: CO 1: To recognise the power of poetry texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. CO 2:To idemonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idio in English Prose ad Fiction -1
dramatists belonging to different ages in the History of English Drama from their past knowledge of a study of the History of English LiteratureCO3:To infer the socio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British Drama CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)102Core-2British Poetry -1Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Vill enable them to: CO 1: To recognise the power of poetry texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. CO 2: To idemonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idio in English Prose ad Fiction -1			CO2: To predict the trends & thematic concerns of the English Drama from their past knowledge of a study of the History of English LiteratureCO3:ToinferCO3:ToinferCO4: Tointerpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)102Core-2British Poetry -1Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetryCO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO1: To recognise the power of poetry traditions103Will enable them to: CO2: To idenstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			L
the History of English LiteratureCO3:To infer the socio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British DramaCO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)102Core-2British Poetry -1Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry102Core-2British Poetry -1CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetryCO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.103Fiction -1CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.
CO3:Toinferthesocio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British Drama CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry102Core-2Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry102Core-2Will enable them to: CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO2: To identify their age from Renaissance to the present.103Core-3 British Prose & Fiction -1Core-3 CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.
Level of Attainment: 77.5%Will enable them to: CO4: To intergret the power of poetry on human emotions103Core-3 British Prose & Fiction -1Will enable them to: CO1: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of gener, gender and canon.
that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular periodLevel of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark)102Core-2Will enable them to: CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			-
their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular period Level of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark) 102 Core-2 Will enable them to: British Poetry -1 CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO2: To identify the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions Level of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark) 103 Will enable them to: Core-3 CO1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. Core-3 CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction GO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories
Level of Attainment: 70.4% (Benchmark) 102 Core-2 British Poetry -1 CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetry CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions Level of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark) 103 Will enable them to: CO7: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions Level of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark) 103 Vill enable them to: CO7: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. CO2: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate
102Core-2Will enable them to:British Poetry -1CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetryCO2: To identify the various genres of poetryCO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thoughtLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Vill enable them to: CO1: To recognise the power of poetry texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.103Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1Fiction -1CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular period
British Poetry -1CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British poetryCO2: To identify the various genres of poetryCO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thoughtCO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1Fiction -1Co3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.	Level of A	ttainment: 70.4% (]	Benchmark)
poetryCO2: To identify the various genres of poetryCO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.103Core-3 British Prose & Fiction -1CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.	102	Core-2	Will enable them to:
CO2: To identify the various genres of poetryCO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103103Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1Fiction -1Core, gender and canon.		British Poetry -1	CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British
CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			poetry appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1Fiction -1CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry
103Will enable them to: CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1British Prose ak Fiction endowned for the stapping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			CO3: To discern the various notions of language, thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close
CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotionsLevel of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their
Level of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark)103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3Core-3British Prose & Fiction -1CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			thought
Level of Attainment: 77.5% (Benchmark) 103 Will enable them to: 103 CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present. Core-3 CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction Fiction -1 CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human
103Will enable them to: CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			emotions
CO 1: To recognise &discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the present.Core-3CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.	Level of A	ttainment: 77.5% ()	Benchmark)
Core-3CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and FictionFiction -1CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.	103		Will enable them to:
Core-3present.British Prose &CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and FictionFiction -1CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is
Core-3CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and FictionFiction -1CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			representative of their age from Renaissance to the
British Prose & culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Fiction -1 Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.			present.
Fiction -1 Idiom in English Prose and Fiction CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.		Core-3	CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.		British Prose &	culture of England have contributed to the shaping of genre, gender and canon.		Fiction -1	Idiom in English Prose and Fiction
			CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of
Level of Attainment: 68.07% (Benchmark)			genre, gender and canon.
	Level of A	ttainment: 68.07%	(Benchmark)

104		Will enable them to:
	Elective – 1	CO1: To familiarize themselves, through a systematic English Linguistics	study of the Elements of Language, with the principles governing their combination and organization.
		CO2: To promote interest and knowledge about linguistic contexts in which literary texts exists
Level of A	ttainment: 73% (Be	enchmark)
105		Will enable them to:
		CO1: To reflect on and evaluate proficiency skills; promote remediation as a route to understanding primary Elective -4	knowledge of grammar in construction of texts and
	Remedial	speech.
	English	CO2: To develop fundamental competencies in English language in multilingual classrooms: combat incomprehension; acquire cognitive as well as academic skills transferable across languages, to a second language.
Level of A	ttainment: 65.3% (]	Benchmark)
Semester		Will enable them to:
II 201		CO1: To trace the beginning of Drama and theatrical Performances
		CO2: To predict the trends & thematic concerns of the dramatists belonging to different ages in the History of Core- 1 British	English Drama from their past knowledge of a study of
	Drama-2	the History of English Literature CO3:To infer the socio-cultural/political/economic taboos, ideologies & class-rigidities in British Drama CO4: To interpret the dominant philosophical theories that were prevalent in each literary period and evaluate their impact on the dramaturgy of that particular period.
Level of Attainment: 70.6% (Benchmark)
202	Core- 2British	Will enable them to:
	Poetry-2	CO1: To understand the literary traditions in British
	L

		no otwy poetry
		CO2: To identify the various genres of poetry CO3: To discern the various notions of language, appreciate Poetic Diction and be able to attempt a close analysis of poems, and articulate how it stimulates their thought CO4: To recognise the power of poetry on human emotions
Level of A	ttainment: 65.2% (]	Benchmark)
203		Will enable them to:
		CO 1: To recognise & discuss select Literary texts that is representative of their age from Renaissance to the Core -3	present.
	British Prose &	CO2:To demonstrate knowledge of how history and Fiction-2	culture of England have contributed to the shaping of Idiom in English Prose and Fiction
		CO3: To identify and approach Literary texts in terms of genre, gender and canon.
Level of A	ttainment: 67% (Be
204		Will enable them to:
204 CO1 : To grasp an outline and an introduction to the Elective-1History	History of English Language, its descent, and the & Spread of	changes that English Language has gone through since
	English	600 A.D to the present century.
		CO2 : To demonstrate knowledge on important aspects of the subject- vocabulary, grammar, syntax, pronunciation, sound change, etymology, etc. in a simple, clear and methodical way.
Level of Attainment: 67.51% (Benchmark)
205	Elective -2	Will enable them to:
	Teaching English	CO1:To identify delivery methods in multilingual &
	Language &	mixed ability classes
	Literature	CO2: To explore and apply the important methods of 1

		Language learning/teaching in a classroom situation.
Level Atta	ainment: 86.14% (B	enchmark)
Semester		Will enable them to :
III 301		CO1:To understand the nature, function and principles of Criticism
		CO2:To build awareness of the different kinds of criticism & develop an ability to distinguish between them CO3:To assess the contribution of major critics to literary theories; evaluate and interpret Literary texts in the light of these major Theories & Critical Approaches
		CO4:To realise the need for Practical Criticism and gain
	Core- 1	familiarity with the terminology associated with Applied
	Literary	Criticism in order to make a close analysis of literary Criticism & New	texts belonging to any genre
	Literatures	New Literatures
		CO1: To reflect upon
		a) Discourses of Colonialism, Post colonialism &
		Decolonisation;
		b) Myths, Binaries, Racism, Dispossession, Diaspora & Identity;
		c) Patterns of Dominance & Resistance.
		CO2:To equip themselves with key historical, cultural and theoretical terms relevant to Commonwealth literatures that will aid in critical evaluation and deepen
		their understanding of modes of interpretation
Level of A	ttainment: 81.98%
302	Core- 2	Will enable them to :
	American 2	CO1:To briefly survey the far-reaching effects of the Literature &	Reformation & Great Migration experiences which form
	Indian Writing	the bedrock of American Literature in English- 1	CO2:To describe & analyse the different genres that m menon- t	developed and the perspectives that shaped American

-	Γ
		Literature during the various phases of its history CO3: To read & reflect on American Fictional & Non-Fictional prose writings that explain and define the American nation in the course of its making and emergence and the evolution of its democratic ideals CO4:To appreciate the various narrative styles and techniques adopted by prose writers in order to construct
		the American Voice
		CO5: To examine the nuances of multiculturalism in American Poetry, appreciate and challenge notions Race & Displacement
		CO6: To attain an Interdisciplinary Exposure through a study of American Drama to critique: primary as well as resistant narratives that amplify and orchestrate
		ideologies: Puritanism, Romanticism,
		Transcendentalism, Feminism, Realism, Naturalism,
		Social Realism Capitalism, Determinism Expression,
		New Historicism & Postmodernism.
		Indian Writing in English
		CO1:To equip themselves with key historical, cultural
		and theoretical terms relevant to Commonwealth
		literatures that will aid in critical evaluation and deepen
		their understanding of modes of interpretation
		CO2:Toreflect upon
		a) Discourses of Colonialism, Post colonialism &
		Decolonisation;
		b) Myths, Binaries, Racism, Dispossession, Diaspora & Identity;
		c) Patterns of Dominance & Resistance.
Level of A	ttainment: 82.42%
303		Will enable them to :
	Elective-1	CO1:Tounderstand that lexical knowledge is central to
	ELT	communicative competence
		1

		CO2:To develop their pedagogical skills in a learner-centric classroom which will enable them to become better facilitators.
Level of A	ttainment:71.02%
304		Will enable them to :
		CO1: Togain exposure to an area of study which is not generally in the ambit of traditional discourses; examine how social attitudes have shaped perception
	Elective -2	a) Women's Literature
	Women's	b) Women in literature
	Writing	CO2: To deconstruct texts to discern Gender Hierarchies/Stereotypes so as to interrogate Patriarchal critical assumptions as a mode of wresting power from Women.
		CO3: To perceive the marginalised position of women universally; question/examine/resist the Silence.
Level of A	ttainment: 86.5%
305		Will enable them to :
		CO1:Toreflect upon
		 a) Discourses of Colonialism, Post colonialism & Decolonisation; Elective-3	b) Myths, Binaries, Racism, Dispossession, Diaspora
	Colonial	& Identity;
	Encounters	c) Patterns of Dominance & Resistance.
		CO2:To understand notions of Black Consciousness, Negritude ,Black studies, & Apartheid/ Race; Cultural Diversities, Orientalism, Imperialism, Subaltern, Modernity
Level of A	ttainment: 85.3%
Semester	Core- 1Literary Will enable them to :
IV 401	Criticism &	Literary Criticism
	Classics in	CO1:To assess the contribution of major critics to Translation	literary theories; evaluate and interpret Literary texts in the light of these major Theories & Critical Approaches

		CO2: To realise the need for Practical Criticism and gain familiarity with the terminology associated with Applied Criticism in order to make a close analysis of literary texts belonging to any genre Classics in Translation
		CO1: To comprehend the importance of a study of Classical Literature, albeit through translated texts, as a prerequisite to an understanding & appreciation of all literatures
		CO2: To broaden their horizons by underpinning texts within a socio-political milieu; evaluate and analyse key Classical texts to understand finer nuances of culture and perceive how culture is informed by sub-cultural movements CO3: To compare & contrast texts to engage beyond the textual level to look at the influence of Art, Literary and Historical, and socio-political movements
	ttainment: 66.66%
402		Will enable them to :
		American Literature CO1:To appreciate the various narrative styles and techniques adopted by prose writers in order to construct
		the American Voice
	Core- 2American	CO2: To examine the nuances of multiculturalism in
	Literature &	American Poetry, appreciate and challenge notions Race
	Indian Writing	& Displacement
	in English-2	CO3: To attain an Interdisciplinary Exposure through a study of American Drama to critique: primary as well as resistant narratives that amplify and orchestrate
		ideologies: Puritanism, Romanticism,
		Transcendentalism, Feminism, Realism, Naturalism,
		Social Realism Capitalism , Determinism Expression,

		New Historicism & Postmodernism.
		Indian Writing in English
		CO1: To equip themselves with key historical, cultural and theoretical terms relevant to Commonwealth
		literatures that will aid in critical evaluation and deepen
		their understanding of modes of interpretation
		CO2:Toreflect upon
		a) Discourses of Colonialism, Post colonialism &
		Decolonisation;
		b) Myths, Binaries, Racism, Dispossession, Diaspora & Identity;
		c) Patterns of Dominance & Resistance.
I ovel of A	ttainment: 65.74%
		Will enable them to t
403		Will enable them to :
	Elective-1Skills	CO1: To equip themselves with essential intra and inter-for Employment	personal skills with regard to employability in this competitive world
		CO2 : To develop a correct attitude to employment ttainment: 65.74%
404		Will enable them to :
		CO1: To grasp the full meaning of the elemental skills:
	Elective -2	Collection of material, Outlining, Evaluation of sources,
	Research	Note-taking, Drafting, Compiling the working
	Methodology	Bibliography, & Acknowledging and documenting
	Witthodology	sources
		CO2: To equip themselves with research skills so as to engage in close analysis of texts
Level of A	ttainment: 52.03%	l
405		Will enable them to :
	Elective-3	CO1: To equip themselves with technology oriented
	Business	employability skills.
	Communication	CO2: To understand Netetiquette& optimise the use of
	& H. R. Skills.	technical writing in drafting Reports, Minutes, E-mails,
		· ·

		CO3: To acquaint them with the paramount principles & hone suitable skillsrequired in Business Correspondence & Technical Communication
Level of A	ttainment: 43.80%	